WORD OF THE WEEK: THANKFULNESS

When you have thankfulness in your heart, you are thankful and grateful for everything you have and are given. Everything that you have is good enough and you will treasure it. This is what God did for us. He gave us life, love, food, water, and the earth to call our temporary home. Since we have but a short life here on earth, God has prepared for us something even better. That is Heaven. We should be thankful for what we have here now, because there is an even better place in store for us! Proverbs 107:1, "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever."
